Thousands of employers are in doubt. The future of multiple projects in women's development, health and education is now uncertain. Donation stops, clouds on the forehead of America, the cloud on the forehead, the big danger in front. Thousands of employers are in doubt. The future of multiple projects in women's development, health and education is now uncertain. New freedom has arrived in August. Most people in Bangladesh believe that. New boys are now dreaming of repairing state in the eyes of girls. Elected advanced administration is needed to build a dream Bangla. Similarly, the tide of the work resource and the production industry is needed.

There is a need for a strong government money. The financial development of Bangladesh depends a lot on foreign investment and help. But in the possession of Trump, the cloud of Bangladesh is seeing the cloud of Sindoor. Like the rest of the world, the financial coat is going to fall on Bangladesh.

Washington has said that all economic aid in Bangladesh is suspended in the next three months. That is, the United States Agency for International Development or USAID, a volunteer company, will not grant Bangladesh more than a penny. Whose rash is about to have the influence of Bangladesh on the middle and the lower classes.

Thousands of employers are in doubt. The future of multiple projects in women's development, health and education is now uncertain. What is the problem of Trump's 'America First' policy? Anand Bazar from Bangladesh
