

Ukraine may one day become Russia!

In an interview with Fox News, the President of the United States said, "Ukraine may reach an agreement with Russia." Again, that may not be the case. It may also be that Ukraine becomes Russia one day.'

Vice President of the state, JD Vans, is going to meet with Ukraine President Volodimir Zensky this week. Earlier, Trump's explosive comments were stirred in the international arena. The US president wants to say exactly through such a statement that his hair analysis has begun.

Recalling the US assistance to Ukraine in the war that begins with Russian aggression, the US president is now calculating the return to invest. To that end, he suggested a trade agreement with Kiev for rare mineral resources such as natural resources.

Trump says, 'I (Ukraine) told them that I want equivalent things, such as a rare mineral worth $ 1 billion. They agreed. The government of Volodimir Zelnsky has already indicated that he is ready to discuss a partnership with the United States and other allies in exchange for security guarantee.

Before the US elections, Trump has repeatedly claimed that the conflict between Russia and Ukraine would never have happened if he was in the oval office in 2022. After coming to power, he is now pushing for the fast end of the war. He had earlier said that the huge military assistance provided to Ukraine was to stop.

However, Zensky is demanding strict security guarantee from Washington as part of any agreement with Russia. Kiev fears that if any agreement does not include strict military commitments, such as NATO membership or peacekeeping troops, Kremlin will get the opportunity to re-equip the attack.
